

Please don't get married if

If you are unwilling to put the needs of another person above your own.

If you are easily offended, carry grudges or unwilling to forgive.

You are an abusive person.

If you are unwilling to commit.

If you have unresolved addiction problems.

If your career is the most important thing in your life.

If you don't share the same beliefs values life priorities or vision.

You are unwilling to be an active partner sexually with your spouse.

You are unwilling to agree on an approach to finances, children life decisions.

If you expect your spouse to change after marriage.

Question

Can I give and accept love without reserve?

Have I dealt with my past?